

Week of Respect

October 5th – 9th, 2015

“Week of Respect” will be celebrated throughout New Jersey the first full week in October. Randall Carter has some very special activities planned to help students learn and demonstrate how they can show RESPECT for themselves, others, and their community.

This year’s theme is “We Not Me”

Our Week of Respect activities include:

- “We Not Me” School-wide project
- Daily reading of the Respect Pledge and quotes about Respect
- Anti- Bullying Assembly for all Randall Carter students on 10/13/15
- Activities and Theme Days
- Specialized classroom lessons on RESPECT!

To show your support, please participate in
Week of Respect 2015 THEME DAYS!

- Monday: “The Choice for me is to be part or We!
Wear BLUE to celebrate the World Day of Bullying Prevention.
- Tuesday: “There’s no I in Team!” – Wear your favorite Sports Jersey.
- Wednesday: “Bands of Respect” – Wear your favorite HEADBAND or WRISTBAND.
- Thursday: “Learning as a Team is Our dream” – Wear your Pajamas.
- Friday: “Can’t hide Our pride!” – Wear School Colors or Spirit-Wear.